

Punched-Out Hearts with Weaving Paper Strips

v12226

These lovely hanging decorations are made from punched-out cardboard hearts with glued on weaving paper strips. Attach a piece of silver sewing thread decorated with a glitter bead for hanging.

1 Kill two birds with one stone. Let the older children weave the stars. The younger children can glue the cut-off ends onto the cardboard hearts in a lovely pattern. This gives matching decorations and both younger and older children have shared a pleasant and creative day.
