

A Bright Owl on Greeting Cards as an Invitation or Congratulation

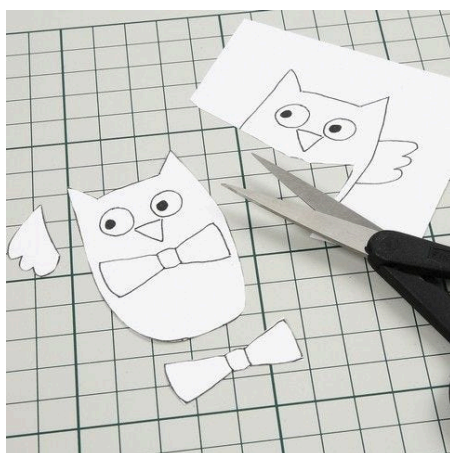

v12924

This blank greeting card has been decorated with paper cut-outs from the Color Bar series and Vivi Gade Design paper from the London series. It is then decorated with marker pen lines, designs from templates, punched-out flowers and self-adhesive rhinestones.

Comment faire

1. Cut paper and card to size and attach these to the greeting card with self-adhesive double-sided tape.

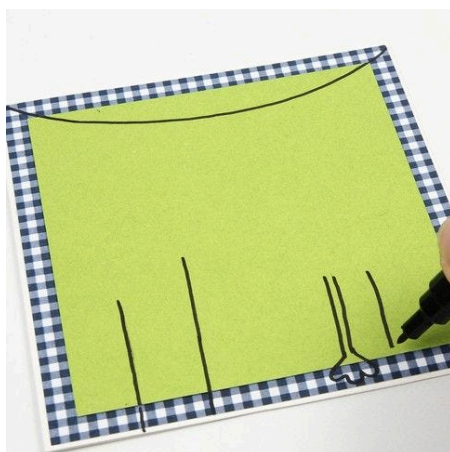

2. Print two or three copies of the template and cut out all the parts.

3. Cut out all the parts in different paper designs. Use the eyes from the actual template print-out.

4. Punch out the flowers with a lever punch and cut out the parts for the bunting using the template.

5. Use a marker pen for drawing the bunting piece of string, the flower stalks and the owls' legs.

6. Attach the cut-outs with a glue stick.

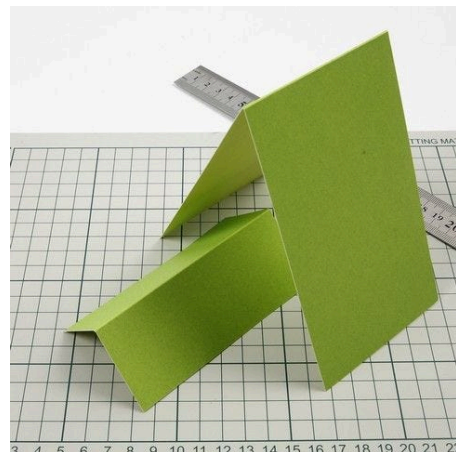

7. Print out all text for the various cards on white paper glued onto party card. Attach the invitation to the greeting card using 3D foam pads.

8. Decorate with self-adhesive rhinestones.

9. Cut the menu cards and the place cards from green Color Bar card measuring 28 x 14cm and 11 x 9cm. Score along the middle with a bone folder or a blunt needle and fold.
