

Apron made from a Vivi Gade Design Tea Towel (the Paris Series)

v13364

This apron is made from a single tea towel from the Vivi Gade "Paris" Design Series. The drawstring is a piece of design cord, threaded through a casing. A knot is tied at each end of the design cord.

Comment faire

1. Fold the two corners of the tea towel at one end towards the center. Now sew a tunnel approx. 2 cm from the edge.

2. Thread a piece of design cord measuring approx. 2 m through the tunnel and tie a knot at each end of the cord. NB: cut a longer piece of cord if you wish to tie the apron on the front.
