Comment faire

1 Bracelet: Cut a piece of beading wire to your desired length, attach a crimp bead at one end and squeeze it flat. Thread on a bead tip with a loop to enclose the crimp bead.

2 Attach a round jump ring to the loop of the bead tip and then onto a clasp. Close the round jump ring with pliers.

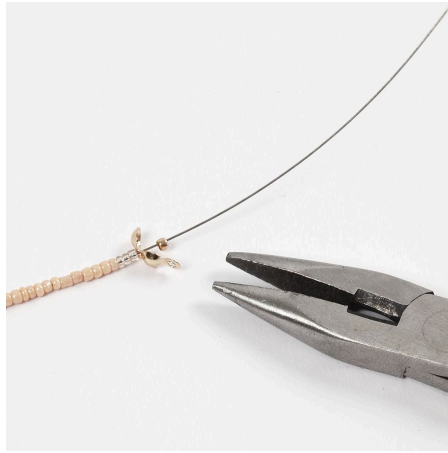

3 Thread rocaille seed beads onto the wire.

4 Attach a round jump ring to the loop of the golden pendant. Close the round jump ring with pliers and thread the pendant onto the wire.

5 Finish the bracelet by attaching a crimp bead at the other end of the bracelet and squeeze to secure. Thread a bead tip onto the wire and enclose the crimp bead inside.

6 Attach a round jump ring to the loop on the bead tip and close the round jump ring with pliers.

7 Stud earrings with pendants: Cut a piece of beading wire for a long pendant for each stud earring. Thread the wire through the loop on the earring and attach a crimp bead. Squeeze it flat with pliers. Thread rocaillon seed beads onto the wire and finish with a gold pendant and a crimp bead. Squeeze the crimp bead flat. Conceal the last bit of wire inside the nearest bead.
