

Table Decoration

v11984

A paper waist band with a paper and tulle rondelle. Decorated with wax beads, gold thread and punched out butterflies.

Comment faire

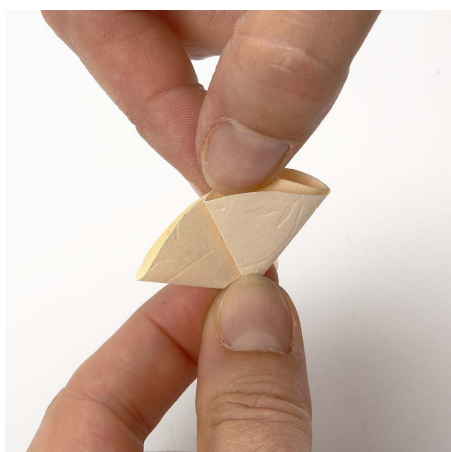

1
Cut out five circles, each with a diameter of 5cm and one circle with a diameter of 4cm.

2
Fold the five circles in half.

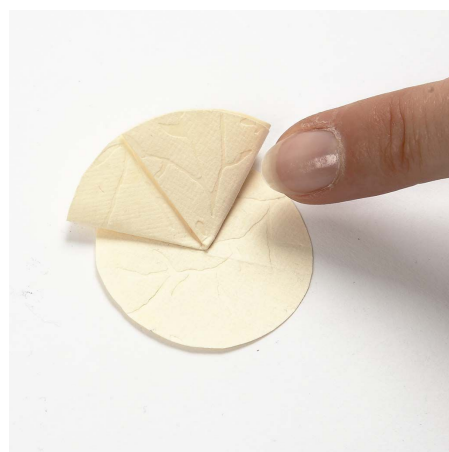

3
Attach a Glue Dot on the edge of each folded circle.

4
Then fold in 1/3 of the half circle towards the remaining 2/3 of the circle. Do not press the edges flat. Fold the other four circles using the same procedure.

5
Attach two Glue Dots onto the back of each of the five folded circles (along the edges).

6
Attach the first of the five folded circles onto the small 4cm diameter circle; the tip in the middle of the circle.

7
Attach the remaining four assembled circles as shown:

11
Gather a piece of tulle measuring 4 x 50cm using tacking stitches.

12
Tighten the piece of gold thread to make a rondelle. Tie a knot.

13
Push the gold thread up through the middle of the paper rondelle and through a button as shown.

14
Feed the gold thread back through the holes of the button. Tie a knot on each end of the gold thread and glue small punched out butterflies onto the ends of the gold thread.

15
Make a waist band from two pieces of paper – cut one piece with a pair of edged scissors. The largest of the two should measure 5 x 20cm - cut the other piece slightly smaller. Glue the two pieces together and cut a notch in each end. Assemble by inserting each end into the notches as shown in the photo.

16

Glue the small tulle and paper rondelle onto the waist band using a glue gun.
