

A Bracelet with Flowers made from Rocaïlle Seed Beads

v15035

Size 3 rocaïlle seed beads are threaded onto a piece of jewellery wire and flowers are made as you go along using a simple technique.

Comment faire

1
Cut a 25 cm piece of thin jewellery wire. Using long chain nose pliers, squeeze a crimp bead around the end of the wire and squeeze a bead tip around the crimp bead. Attach a round jump ring to the loop of the bead tip. erens hul.

2
Start with three beads (these form the distance between each flower). Making the flower: four rose and one gold bead.

3
Push the needle through the first rose bead and tighten (= half a flower).

4
Add another three rose beads and push the needle through the bead above.

5
Continue with three beads (for the space between each flower) and flowers until the bracelet measures 18 cm (11 flowers). Finish with a crimp bead, a bead tip and a round jump ring (like at the beginning). Attach a lobster claw clasp.
