

Learn how to crochet puff stitches into a magic ring. Puff stitch is abbreviated ps.

A circular, textured object made of grey yarn, possibly a crocheted or knitted piece, shown against a white background. The object has a dense, intricate pattern of interlocking loops, creating a radial, sunburst-like appearance. The yarn is a medium grey color, and the overall shape is roughly circular with some irregular edges.

Click to see the instructions (video).